OVERVIEW

Jeanne Dunggio founded JDUNGGIOINDONESIA in 2015 after working at several firms in Indonesia, which included Public Relations Consultant, Law Firm, Property Company, Project Management Office Consultant, and Drilling Contractor Company. Jeanne acquired extensive Public Relation Experience and Legal experience from all those business sectors that she worked before.

Based on her experience in Public Relations, marketing, business management and Legal aspects, she help her local and national clients to achieve a Public Relations recognition.

As well with the business licenses, when the former companies need to renew their business licenses, she handled business license application and build a good relationship with the government. As a result, an on time license expectation from management are always achieved.

Jeanne always puts her customers first and customizes client's need based on their individual character expectation to ensure they get maximum benefits when using JDUNGGIOINDONESIA services.
